JIM PARK IS GIVEN GOOD COMMITTEES

Madison Representative Is Well Taken Care of By Speaker—Senate Adopts Rules

Probably no republican member of the House at Frankfort received more favorable consideration in the appointment to committees than James Park, who represents Madison in the lower branch of the General Assembly.

Speaker Thompson was especially nice to Mr. Park. He is placed on a number of important committees, having seven assignments altogether. His list of committees is as follows: Codes of Practice; Cities of the Second and Third Class; Education No. 1; Military Affairs; Normal Schools; Racing; and State University.

Only one republican was named on the important Rules Committee—Joe F. Bosworth, of Bell county, who was speaker two years ago when the republicans controlled the House, and is the republican floor leader this time. There are 15 members on the Rules Committee this year.

Speaker James H. Thompson, of Paris ex-officio chairman; Claude D. Minor, of Perryville; ranking member: Arch L. Hamilton, Lexington; G. Lucien Drury, Morganfield; Charles A. Nelson, White Mills; Ira D. Smith, Hopkinsville; Lee L. Simons, Louisville; Henry Lawrence, Cadiz; Harry J. Meyers, Covington; J. E. Brown, Shelbyville; David J. Howard, Versailles; Samuel W. Bosworth, Middletown; and W. M. Bowling, Brandenburg.

In the Senate, rules of procedure were adopted. By a party vote of 19 to 15 the recommendation of the Rules Committee, putting it in power for the final 20 days of the session, instead of 15, as in previous sessions, was adopted.

Senator John A. Lee, of Owen county, who will introduce the anti-betting bill Tuesday, objected to a change in the rules, whereby the words "or pecuniarily" were stricken out from the provision which is designed to prevent a member from voting on a measure in which he has a "personal or private" interest. The additional word, "pecuniarily," is not in the constitution, for which reason the Rules Committee decided that it should not be in the rules of the Senate, which, it contended, should not go beyond the language of the state constitution.

Rising to comment on this rule, Senator Lee said that whenever a bill affecting any corporation or interest was before the Senate he wanted Senator William A. Perry, of Louisville, president pro tem of that branch, to decide whether or not any member was interested, directly or indirectly, in the measure, or whether his connection was such as to justify his exclusion from voting on the bill.

Senator Perry, as chairman of the rules committee, said that he would not attempt to act as censor of any other member's right to vote. "That is a question for the individual Senator to decide, or for the Senate itself to consider," is the way he regarded it.

After the Senate adjourned, Senator Lee said that his inquiry was made in connection with the proposed anti-betting legislation, affecting race tracks. "I am opposed to all forms of betting, either by pari-mutuels, as now practiced, or by bookmakers, as in some other states," said Mr. Lee. "I have heard that some members of the legislature are either now on the payroll of the race tracks, or have been so employed recently. I don't think they should have the right to vote on the bill, and will so indicate at the proper time."

When asked if he intended to introduce an anti-racing measure, Mr. Lee said that he has a bill which he will bring into the Senate tomorrow, "unless some other Senator does so first."

Senator Hiram Brock, of Harlan, republican leader in the Senate, objected to the change in the rules which gives the Rules Committee twenty, instead of fifteen days, to control measures during the final stages of the session, and also said that the Rules Committee should not have the sole right to introduce bills during that period, which is expressly given to it by the rules. Senator Perry called attention of Senator Brock to the fact that this provision was in the rules of the 1920 session, with the exception that control was only fifteen days. "We want the Rules Committee to have the power of 29 days," said Senator Perry. "In order that it may carry out the mandate of the people, as expressed at the recent election, which put the responsibility on the democratic party. We want to be able to pass necessary bills prior to the time that the governor will be able to hold a measure until adjournment. He has the right to keep a bill on his desk for ten days, and in order that the Senate may act on any possible executive vetoes, we are asking for the extra five days."

BIG ROAD BOND ISSUE TO VOTE OF PEOPLE

State Engineer Boggs Behind Proposition That Legislature Will Be Asked to Submit

A bill authorizing citizens of the state to vote on a $50,000,000 bond issue in the early fall thru which a modern system of roads will be constructed in Kentucky within 5 years, will be submitted to the General Assembly next week, it was said last night. The measure is likely to be introduced in the House of Representatives Tuesday.

The bill, which has been drawn by M. M. Logan, former Attorney General, was approved by the good roads officials at a conference yesterday afternoon. Those who attended the session and discussed the provisions were State Senators White L. Moss, of Pineville, and Hiram Brock, of Harlan, Robert J. McBryde, Jr., of Louisville, Joe S. Boggs, Highway Engineer and Mr. Logan.

Under provisions of the bill to raise funds for the perfection of the primary road system of 4,000 miles as authorized by the legislature in 1920, officials said maintenance of the roads and payment of the interest and retirement of bonds through establishment of a sinking fund can be taken care of without raising additional revenue above that the state now annually receives for road purposes. It is provided in the measure that the bonds shall not bear more than 5 per cent interest, but officials believe that the issue can be floated and sold with the bonds bearing 4 per cent. The bonds, under the plan, will be issued at the rate of $10,000,000 a year for 5 years and it is said the average life of the bonds will be 15 years. The bonds will be retired in 30 years.

Of the $50,000,000 issue $8,000,000 will be devoted to the State Fair, the University of Kentucky, the three normal schools and the charitable and penal institutions of the state.

TOBACCO GRADES ABOUT WORKED OUT

Standard grades for the tobacco in the control of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association have been worked out and it is probable that this part of the work will be completed by Tuesday, it was said at the association headquarters, at Lexington, Monday.

The remainder of the personnel of the association also will be announced within a day or two.

With the working out of the grading system the selection of the graders is practically all that remains to put the system into effect and President James C. Stone's statement Saturday that the officers hoped to have the warehouses open for the reception of the pooled tobacco within the next few days indicates that progress is being made toward that goal of the organized growers.

No information was obtainable as to the financing of the crop, but as plenty of financial assistance has been offered the association, including that from local banks, as well as federal financial sources, officials have not evidently been worried much with that problem.

American Legion Grows

TWO MORE NORMAL SCHOOLS PROPOSED

Move On Foot In Legislature To Establish Two More In Different Sections

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10—Establishment of two normal schools for the training of white elementary teachers upon condition that gifts of land, money or buildings are forthcoming from the communities in which the institutions are located, will be asked of the legislature during the present session.

The act will ask for an annual appropriation of $30,000 for each of the schools for maintenance operation, this money to be forthcoming only when the State Board of Education shall have received gifts of buildings or money or suitable lands to the sum of $100,000. The schools are to be under the supervision of the State Board of Education and one is to be located in the eastern part and the other in the western part of the state.

It is indicated that rivalry will make its appearance in the location of the schools as many cities and towns in each section already have expressed a desire that the institutions be located in their particular county. It is understood from authoritative sources that at least one Kentucky town has offered lands and buildings to the project, should the legislature act favorably.

Several things will be taken into consideration in the location of the schools. Inducements offered by the community; geographical location; accessibility, and needs will be carefully considered before final location is decided upon. The act provides that if gifts are forthcoming from one section of the state that the institution may be established there and receive the annual appropriation regardless of the action of the other end of the state.

In eastern Kentucky the towns of Morehead, Pikeville, Ashland, Louisa, and Paintsville already have indicated a desire to secure the school, while Mayfield, Paducah and Princeton have been mentioned as likely contenders in the western field.

WANTS ONE DOG PER FAMILY FREE OF TAX

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Jan. 10—"At least one dog is a necessity to the mountaineer of Kentucky and the dogs of the mountains save far more sheep during a year than they kill," said N. T. Hopkins, of Yager, representative in the Kentucky House of Representatives from Pike county, in commenting on a proposed bill altering the dog tax law.

Mr. Hopkins, who formerly was a member of Congress, said that in his opinion the law should exempt one dog for each person. "The mountain man," said Mr. Hopkins, "must have his dog. He needs him for the protection of his live stock as well as for hunting. Wildcats and other savage animals kill many sheep in the mountains during the year and would kill many more but for the activity of our dogs."

"We usually know where our dogs are and have them trained so that we can find them. If I step out of my house and blow my horn, I know my dog is going to come to me at once."

"I believe that every man should be allowed at least one dog of one year of age or over without taxation. I have no objection to all dogs over one for each man being taxed, but this one should be free, for if properly handled, he will more than make up for the damage done by improperly trained dogs in running or killing sheep."

Mr. Hopkins made his race for representative on a platform calling for a repeal of the dog tax insofar as it affects one dog to the man.

"Earthbound" Wonderful! Screen Production

In the marvelous motion picture production "Earthbound" from the pen of Basil King, and which will be shown at local theatres Tuesday, everything that went into the making of the picture from the selection of the cast down to the smallest detail in the settings was judged by the highest standard of art. Perfection was the goal of the producers. Nothing was considered good enough. It had to be the best that genius and human ingenuity could make it before it was accepted. That is why it required a solid year to produce this master picture. But the result justifies all the time and money that was spent on it for "Earthbound" stands out as the supreme achievement of screen productions.

SELL FORT SUTTER PAPERS

Famous Documents of 1846-7 Were Subject of Search for Many Years.

New York.—The long-lost Fort Sutter papers, 1846-7—the greatest historical discovery, it is asserted, that has been made for more than a generation—is in a collection of rare books on the west, its history and romance, which were sold here recently.

These papers were the subject of search for more than half a century. George Bancroft, whose extensive investigations yielded many other priceless historical treasures of similar character, finally abandoned hope of the discovery of the Fort Sutter papers, and said in his work that a veil of mystery shrouded the events of 1846 and 1847 in the Sacramento valley and that very little was known of affairs at Sutter fort during Kern's administration as commander there.

The finding of the manuscripts bears out Bancroft's estimate of their consequence and, in addition, seems to point to Gen. Stephen W. Kearney's attitude toward John C. Fremont and Kern as the probable cause of the papers' disappearance in 1847.

the holidays. Sullivan Hall and the Annex are full to their capacity. Burnam Hall has about 75 women in it—three-quarter capacity—with over 200 women asking for rooms February 6, and Memorial Hall, the Men's Dormitory, with capacity of about 200 men, is overflowing with quite a number of men out in town. It is interesting to note the growth of the Normal School in recent years. For example, at the close of the second term—one of the two small terms—in 1910, there were 188 normal students; at the close of the second term in 1916 260 students; at the close of the second term last year, 1920-21, 395 students; now in the middle of the second term, there are 628 normal students, a growth of a little more than 232 per cent. If the ratio continues throughout the year, Eastern will enroll more than 2,000 resident students during the current year. This means much to Richmond and to Kentucky.

School Legislation Proposed

A little later in the session a bill will probably be introduced in the Legislature to enable the Executive Council of the two State Normal Schools to add two more years to the present course of study and to enable the Boards of Regents to grant degrees of A. B. and B. S. in education on the completion of the same.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

Read This Letter from Mrs. W. S. Hughes

Greenville, Del.—"I was under the impression that my eldest daughter had some internal trouble as ever since the first time her sickness appeared she had to go to bed and even had to quit school once for a week. I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound myself so I gave it to her and she has received great benefit from it. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish, as I cannot say too much about what your medicine has done for me and for my daughter."—Mrs. WM. S. HUGHES, Greenville, Delaware.

Mothers and oftentimes grandmothers have taken and have learned the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So they recommend the medicine to others.

The best test of any medicine is what it has done for others. For nearly fifty years we have published letters from mothers, daughters, and women, young and old, recommending the Vegetable Compound. They know what it did for them and are glad to tell others. In your own neighborhood are women who know of its great value.

Mothers—daughters, why not try it?

Those Property Increases

Tax Commission figures made public last week showed that property values have been raised 75.1 per cent in Madison county during the last four years, and in the state of Kentucky some 94 per cent. These increases should not be accepted by anyone, as representing tangible increases in property valuation but as representing assessments ordered by the Tax Commission. For instance there is any land in Madison county that sold for $100 an acre in 1917 that will bring $175 an acre now? Someone's going to have a hard time explaining some day to the voters just why this increased burden of taxation was shouldered on the farmers and other taxpayers during the past four years.

WITNESSES SAY OPIE SHOT MEN

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Jan. 10—Testifying before the Senate committee investigation of the charges that soldiers were put to death in France without having trial, Stonewall Jackson Albin, of Kernston, Virginia, asserted he saw "Major Opie shoot a soldier in cold blood." The witness said the soldier handed Opie a piece of paper. Opie gazed at it. The soldier turned his back and Opie, the witness declared, shot him. James Carlson, of Richmond, Virginia, said he heard Opie order another soldier to stop. "He shot and the man fell" said the witness.

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved, She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached. I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head. Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak. "I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly. "I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble."

Dizziness, headache, sideache, backache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly troubles. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardui a very valuable remedy. Cardui is composed only of pure, vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women.

EASTERN WINS FROM PARIS K. C.

The Paris Knights of Columbus basketball team proved to be easy for the fast Eastern Normal five when the locals defeated them by a score of 34 to 12 at the Madison Hi gymnasium Monday night. Paris K. C. took the lead at the start of the contest but it was soon overcome by the great work of Eastern. A pass was shot to Burnett, Paris captain and star guard, shortly after the first whistle blew. He dribbled under the goal, shooting it, which gave Paris the lead. In the next few minutes of play Eastern made several field goals in succession, giving them a safe lead. The score at the end of the first half was 13 to 4 in favor of Eastern.

The second half was much faster than the first, both teams scoring more points in that half than in the first. In the first half Clark, Byrd, and Stephenson each made two field goals but in the second Byrd succeeded in caging six field goals while the other two Eastern scorers made two more each. Campbell Byrd started in the second half when he ran ahead of his teammates and scored 13 points in that half. During the entire game he was responsible for 18 of Eastern's 34 points. Byrd showed up exceedingly well in following up his shots. He covered the floor with much speed, passing the ball with the same accuracy as his shooting. At quick throws from long distances, he scored more than half of his points. The two-arm shot from the shoulder helped him very much in getting rid of the ball with snap. Clark, who played the other forward, was responsible for some fine floor work that aided Eastern greatly. He was there with the goods at all stages of the game. His shots included some pretty long ones, when passing was impossible. His guarding was also a feature.

Stephenson, at center, succeeded in getting the tip of on the Paris opponents nine-tenths of the time which made the Eastern signals run with more regularity than against Wesleyan. He came in for his share of the floor work. Stephenson also followed up his shots well. Besides passing well he scored eight points as the result of four field goals. The only shift in the Eastern line-up during the game was when Coach Hembree removed Hall in favor of Mainous at the close of the first half. Both of these men who were the running mates of Combs at guard played true to form. Combs has been the victim of a sprained ankle since Friday and it was doubtful until the last minute whether he would be able to play or not. When the time rolled around he was feeling as good as ever and played throughout the contest. His work was of the highest class in spite of the bad ankle he was forced to guard against another injury. Time after time he leaped high into the air for a Paris pass and came down with the majority of times. He with Hall the first half, and Mainous the second half permitted the Paris pass to penetrate their defense but few times. Mainous' floor work could hardly be improved upon while that of Hall was of the same class.

For Paris K. P. Tucker and Burnett scored six points each. Neither succeeded in throwing a field goal in several attempts. Burnett got two of his three goals from the middle of the floor. He was a fine shot from that position and would have gotten more had not it been for the fine work of the Eastern guards. Tucker covered the floor with much speed and all his goals were beautifully executed. The line-up:

OFFICERS CATCH MAN WITH 'SHINE

The Richmond police force are continuing to make life hard for the bootleggers and moonshiners who try to do business in the city limits. Officers Wade Golden and Jack Hardin caught Ed Fogel with a coca cola bottle and a pint bottle full of moonshine. Fogel swore that he bought it from Goebel Peyton, near Estill avenue and Main street. In police court Monday night Peyton was held to await grand jury action by Judge Murray Smith. His bond was fixed at $200 which he gave with his brother, Russell Peyton as surety. As Fogel was willing to tell where he had obtained the liquor he was released by the court.

OLD C-J BUILDING DAMAGED BY FIRE

Louisville, Jan. 10—The loss (By Associated Press).
estimated from the burning of the two upper floors of the Courier-Journal office building, former home of the newspaper of that name, is estimated today at $311,000. The origin is undetermined but is believed to be due to crossed electric wires. Plans for rebuilding the structure which was the first five-story edifice erected in Louisville, awaited a more exact survey of the damage. In this building the late Henry Watterson wrote most of the editorials which gained him fame.

LEGION NEWS

All American Legion posts in Missouri have been asked by Dr. Henry F. Parker, state commander, to back a $600,000 bond issue for the construction of hard roads. Ex-service men will have preference in employment.

American Legion members are urged to pay poll taxes, register and make no attempt to dodge jury service as part of the activities for 1922 in instructions prepared by Alvin M. Owsley, director of the Legion's Americanization commission. The Legion men are urged to make full use of the franchise and prevent miscarriages of justice under the jury trial system.

More than 16,000 former service men are suffering from tuberculosis in Denver, according to C. J. Harris, director of the American Legion's service division, who is making an investigation of the care of these men. The situation is getting beyond the control of civic authorities and adequate hospital facilities are a pressing need, Mr. Harris reports.

Marriage after the entrance of America into the world war did not constitute an attempted evasion of the draft so as to deprive the service man of a bonus claim under the Minnesota statute, the Minnesota Supreme Court has ruled.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Lena Rivers Asher, who departed this life January 7, 1919.

The month of January again is here, To us the saddest of all the year; Because God called our dear daughter away, One we loved but could not save.

My darling sister, our hearts are sad, Since God called you away; Your soul in peace went up to him, Three years ago today.

We know you dwell where angels dwell, In God's bright home above; And prayers go up to God for you, Blessed by your parents' and sister's love.

Sadly missed by Father, Mother and Sisters.

A "balanced diet" may sound confusing to many people

The facts, as explained here, are simple.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues; starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat; and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with milk or cream for breakfast; or with stewed fruit, jelly or jam, as a delicious dessert for lunch or dinner.

Every member of the family will relish this palatable and nourishing food—

No Great Act of Heroism Required

If some great act of heroism was necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual.

FIND TOMBS OF ETHIOPIAN KINGS

Expedition Headed by Professor Reisner Brings Back Story of Lost Civilization.

LINE OF ITS RULERS TRACED

Ten Years' Research Provides Rich
Collection for Harvard University and Boston Museum—Get Full List of Rulers.

Cambridge, Mass.—Discovery of the tombs of 26 generations of Ethiopian kings and the recovery of material buried for more than 2,000 years, which makes it possible for the first time to write the history of Ethiopia, were reported by the joint Egyptian expedition of Harvard university and the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. The expedition, in charge of Professor George A. Reisner of Harvard, was in Egypt ten years. Its findings in part have been reported from time to time.

Find Royal Cemeteries.

The discovery of the lost civilization of Ethiopia was made at Napata, now called Gebel Barkal. Napata, the ancient capital of Ethiopia, lies in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, at the southern end of Dongola province. The royal cemeteries were found outside the city. At Nuri, to the south, on a low knoll near the River Nile, the archaeologists examined a group of pyramids which proved to be the tombs of the 20 kings and 25 queens of Ethiopia from 600 to 250 B. C., most of whose names had been lost to human knowledge.

Excavations gradually uncovered the burial chamber of Tirhena, the king of Ethiopia mentioned in the book of Isaiah, who was one of the five Ethiopian monarchs who ruled over Egypt, and then one by one uncovered the tombs of all the other kings, queens, princesses and princesses of Ethiopia for a period of more than four centuries. After the excavations at Nuri, four of the greatest kings of Ethiopia were still lacking—kings who, like Tirhena, had ruled Egypt as well as Ethiopia. In the third year of search these four kings with their queens, and indeed six generations of their ancestors, were found at the second royal cemetery at El-Kur 'Uw on the north of Napata.

Descend From Nomads.

It was then discovered that the royal family of Ethiopia had sprung from a tribe of Libyan nomads who had entered the province, then a part of Egypt, about 900 B. C., had become Egyptianized, revolted from Egypt and finally, under Piankhy, conquered the older country. From this sunken place five of the kings of Ethiopia had ruled Egypt and 2,000 miles of the Nile valley, and had sent their ambassadors to the courts of Assyria and western Asia.

Careful study of the objects and inscriptions found in these tombs has given the Harvard-Boston archaeologists a full chronological list of the kings of Ethiopia during this period, and a knowledge of the condition and development of the remarkable arts and crafts of the time.

SEA OTTER AGAIN NUMEROUS

Alaska Trappers Report Priceless Fur-bearer Back in Kelp Beds on Aleutian Islands.

Yakutat, Alaska.—The sea otter, once almost extinct and now protected, is again inhabiting the sea kelp beds on the Aleutian Islands in large numbers. In fact, so many are seen the department of fisheries may be prevailed upon for a brief open season for the benefit of natives and trappers who have fared badly the last two seasons.

The sea otter is one of the most cunning and easily frightened of animals. Like the fur seal its pelt has an ebony shimmer, showing silver when blown open, but soft black, tipped with white when examined hair by hair. A full grown animal measures six feet from nose to end of tail, one pup is born at a time. The mother otter sleeps on her back in the water, clasping the young in her arms. Each native is permitted to trap two a year for his own use. The sea otter has been seen as far south as Eureka, Cal. The pelts are priceless.

Lays Large Egg Once a Week.

Columbus, O.—Some hens cheat the consumer in the size of the eggs that they produce, but Mrs. A. Grotjohn, of No. 206 South Lincoln Park avenue, has a six-months-old pullet that gives a full value in her eggs, even at 65 cents a dozen. Every Monday for the last three weeks this pullet, which is of the Rhode Island variety, has laid an egg that was larger than a duck egg. The hen lays a normal size egg every day, but on Monday she seems to be inspired, for the egg is as big as two of ordinary size.

Find Lost Sacrament Set.

London, Canada.—Lost for thirty-two years, a magnificent set of sacramental silver, consisting of flagon, chalice, paten and silver, which had been presented to Huron college by Bishop Hellmuth, then an archdeacon, in 1804, has just been found. The silver disappeared during the time alterations were being made to the theological institution's chapel, and it was believed to have been stolen by workmen. It was found in an old disused bank vault.

SWIFT PRODUCE REVIEW

The increase in the domestic production of butter continues, as noted in our previous reviews, and this increase, plus imports, has resulted in some accumulation of butter on the markets and lower values both in producing and consuming centers. There is still a large supply of storage butter to be marketed.

Poultry receipts have been a little lighter during the week; this is probably due to the fact that some stock has been held back for egg production.

Roosters hatched in the spring of 1921 are beginning to show up quite staggy, and are discriminated against on all markets. Lower prices are being paid, and before long it is expected young roosters of last year's hatch will be classed and sold as "old roosters." Prices are closing a little higher on live and dressed fowl on practically all markets.

Egg receipts have shown considerable increase throughout the producing sections, resulting in markets closing on a lower basis, although it may be expected the prices of fresh eggs will fluctuate as values are affected by changes in weather conditions.

Here's A Telephone Bill

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Jan. 10.—One bill that will come before the Kentucky legislature some time during the session and which is certain to meet with considerable opposition will be a measure compelling telephone companies to make physical connections with the plants of other companies doing long distance telephone business. The legislator who said that he would introduce the measure, asked that his name be withheld for the present, but said that it was designed to enable persons in cities having two telephone systems to receive long distance calls which originate on the lines of opposition companies. He also would compel the sharing of tolls with farmers' lines.

MADISON GARAGE TO OPEN BATTERY STATION

Announcement is being made this week of the appointment of an Exide Service station in Richmond at the Madison Garage, under the management of Woods and White. This will be good news to automobile owners in this section, who have heretofore sent their batteries to the cities for repair work.

Messrs. Woods and White are determined to give Richmond the most complete and up-to-date battery station in this section of the state. The plant will include modern machinery, handled by an expert battery man, in the person of Mr. Shepherd, who has had years of experience in the factory where the batteries are built. Not only will they be able to furnish new Exide batteries to car owners, but they will be in a position to make and repair batteries for any car on the market, and will feature an Exide battery made especially for Ford cars.

Not only did Messrs. Woods & White receive the agency for Madison county, but they were appointed distributors for ten other counties in this state, and it is their intention to build up one of the biggest and best battery service stations ever known in a town the size of Richmond.

The battery department is under construction, and it is hoped by the management to have the plant ready for the automobile trade by the middle of the week. They invite their friends down to see the plant in operation and assure them the very best service at all times.

League Of Nations Is

New York, Jan. 10.—Today the League of Nations is two years old. On this anniversary the claim is set forth by the admirers that the League has "demonstrated that nations can cooperate without losing their sovereignty, without using force and with mutual advantage to all." The day is also important from a league point of view because the 16th annual meeting of the Council of the League will be held today at Geneva. The Council is composed of representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Belgium, Brazil, Spain and China.

U. S. LEADS IN PANAMA TONNAGE

New Record Made, With Britain, Japan and Norway Following in Order.

GROWTH DUE TO COMPETITION

Ships of Four Nations Carried 80 Per Cent of Tonnage Which Moved Through Canal During the Last Fiscal Year.

Washington.—Ships of four nations carried 80 per cent of the approximately 11,000,000 tons of cargo which moved through the Panama canal during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1921.

American vessels led all others with a total of 5,163,000 tons, establishing a new record by increasing the total tonnage of the previous high years by 315,885.

British ships were second and surpassed even the high mark of 1917, their last banner year. They reached a total of 3,738,250 tons.

Japan and Norway took third and fourth places with 758,800 and 637,880 tons, respectively. No-way dropped below its figures for 1918, but Japan soared to new heights, exceeding her last high mark by 32,379 tons.

Result of Competition.

These unparalleled increases in commerce moved through the waterway by the four nations are attributed by Gov. J. J. Morrow of the Panama canal, in his annual report to competition so keenly developed that it requires use of the quickest routes.

"Almost one-third of the total tonnage handled," the report says, "was so strongly competitive that prompt and complete service may have been the determining factor in the choice of the Panama route. In many of the trades served by the Panama canal, the saving of distance, and hence of time, by the use of the canal is so great that shipping could hardly afford to use any other route."

Of the nations which shared in moving the remaining 11 per cent of tonnage the most important were Denmark, Holland, Spain, Sweden, France and Peru in the order named.

"The most important trade route served by the canal," the report adds, "was that between the east coast of the United States and the west coast of South America. Others of the principal routes were those from the east coast of the United States to the far east and between the west coast of America and Europe."

Gov. Morrow points to the double value of the canal to the United States. In addition to the quick service it gives American ships from coast to coast and in the world trade routes, there is, he said, a constantly increasing revenue which comes to the nation from tolls collected.

"In terms of money the Panama canal," the report asserts, "had gross revenues of more than $27,000,000; increased investment, additions, stock, etc., of $8,000,000 and gross operating expenses of $24,500,000. The excess of revenues in the last fiscal year, the report shows, was $2,500,000 more than for interest on the capital cost of the waterway."

Big Railway Revenue.
The Panama Railroad company, according to the report, had a gross revenue of approximately $22,000,000, an increase in investments in capital additions of $1,500,000, while the gross operating expenses were $22,000,000 on June 30 last. Gross revenues of the Panama Railroad Steamship line, at the same time, were $5,156,448, while operating expenses for the fiscal year totaled $5,857,257.

Legislation to increase the revenue collected from tolls is asked by the governor, who points out that the present system is to assess tolls, on the basis of $1.20 a net ton, according to Panama canal measurement, "unless this would result in a rate of more than $1.25 a net ton, according to United States rules of measurement."

"Under this dual system tolls collected amounted to $11,276,880, which is $1,937,021 less than would have been collected if Panama canal rules only were used," he adds. "Speedy enactment of a law establishing the single standard is urged."

CAN SEE MOVIE IN DAYLIGHT

Public Won't Have to Sit in Dark Now, Says Inventor of New Machine.

Davenport, Iowa.—It will no longer be necessary to sit in the dark at the movies, according to A. F. Victor, secretary of the National Society of Motion Picture Engineers, who announced the invention of a machine which he says will permit of daylight motion pictures.

Mr. Victor's invention reverses the present order of movies. The light, instead of being reflected from the rear of the theater, is now reflected behind the screen. It is now possible to have full daylight in the room and yet have perfect pictures on the screen.

Better Advertising For Better Business

"THAT JONES AD"

Glance over this newspaper. If the advertisements had no names signed to them, could you tell offhand, whose was whose?

There should be something in the very looks of your ad that makes people recognize it as yours before they've read a line.

To get this effect is really simple as A. B. C. Ask your publisher. He knows and will show you how to obtain a distinct "family resemblance" in all your ads, without making them look monotonously alike.

For instance: Simply by the way this is "set up," you recognize it as one of a series you're interested in. Let your publisher help you get up a distinctive "layout"
